OFFICE OF THE STEELING FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, NO. 6 WALL-ST., NEW YORK, April 10, 1865.
A MEETING of the DIRECTORS of this Company, held this day, DAYTON OGDEN was unanimously elected President of the Company.
At the same meeting the following resolution was unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That this Board have heard with deep regret of the death of ALFRED M. WOOD, and that we express our sincere sympathy with his family in their bereavement. We cheerfully record our testimony to his integrity in his personal and official intercourse with us members of this Board, and to his sound and intelligent charge of his affairs during life. It was also resolved, That a copy of the foregoing resolution be sent to the family of the deceased, entered upon the minutes of the meeting, and published in the principal daily papers.

ANDREW L. SOULARD, Secretary.

COAL AT COST.*CONSUMERS' BENEFIT COAL COMPANY.

SHARES, $10.

Each share entitles the holder to one ton of coal per year, at the cost of mining, transport, and delivery, which is now about $3 per ton, or one share of the profits on the sale of coal produced beyond the quantity supplied to shareholders.

Those who buy for investment can have the coal they will be satisfied to pay for their benefit, and receive the proceeds of the cost in cash.

Investment in this stock is not a risk, for Anthracite Coal lands are rapidly rising in value.

The shares to be sold are limited, and are nearly all assigned for immediate application in necessary to secure money, No. 71 Broadway, Room No. 66.
